1 Lit. Elem.
Focus: What happened to George when he was still a baby?

Respond:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2 Strategy
Focus: Why did George live with the Watkinsses and Seymours?

Respond:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3 Skill
Focus: Why did George choose to study agriculture?

Respond:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Skill: Draw Conclusions

Focus: Why do you think that Dr. Carver served guests a meal made entirely of peanuts?

Respond:

Skill: Author’s Purpose

Focus: Why do you think the author wrote A Weed is a Flower – to entertain, to inform, or both? Why?

Respond:

Title: A Weed is a Flower

Author: Aliki

Name: _____________________________

Date: ______________